Remain calm

Listen to the instructions

Watch the Clock!

YOU WILL HAVE 1 HOUR

What will I be told before the test begins?

- The test will last one hour.
- You will be told the time every fifteen minutes.
- Answer the questions IN PENCIL.
- Begin at the beginning.
- If you can't answer a question, leave and go on to the next.
- Do rough work on the paper provided.

What will I be told before the test begins?

- Always be neat whether answering the question or changing the answer.
- Do not cheat by copying someone else's answer.
- Do not help anyone else.
- If you need anything, raise your hand.

Just before the test begins you will be told....

- ...how many pages there are in the paper;
- ...to begin at the beginning;
- ... to turn over when you finish a page without waiting to be told;
- ... you will not be allowed to leave if you finish the test early;
- ...to look over your work when you have finished and check that you have not left out a page.

The Invigilator

- If there is anything wrong with the paper
 - if there is a page missing
 - if it is not clearly printedraise your hand.
- The invigilator will not be able to help you answer a question!

What happens if I am late?

- Don't panic: remember there are three papers;
- come to the entrance you came in today;
- someone will be waiting at the entrance;
- you will be taken to your seat;
- you cannot be given extra time, but answer as many questions as you can without rushing.

When the test has finished...

- you will be told to put down your pencils;
- you must finish at that point, even if you are half-way through a question;
- you must sit quietly while the papers are being collected;
- when told to go, leave the room without talking or making any noise;
- you will be taken to meet your parents at the main entrance..

WHEN LEAVING REMEMBER TO TAKE WITH YOU
